

Mia:

"At camp, I saw trash by the picnic tables after snack time. Everyone else ran off, but I stayed and threw it away."

Jordan:

"During outdoor games, I saw a kid who was really thirsty and didn't have a water bottle. I told a leader so they could help."

Sam:

"At pool time, I saw someone sitting alone. I said, 'Hey, come swim with us!' and helped them join in."

Taylor:

"At pool time, a leader said to stop splashing water out of bounds. Even though others kept doing it, I stopped and followed the rules."

Liam:

"I felt nervous before speaking in front of the group, so I stopped and prayed, asking God to help me."

Ava:

"A camper accidentally dropped her lunch tray. Some kids laughed, but I said, 'It's okay. Let me help you clean it up.'"
